Online Auction New This Year

We are trying something new this year, and have uploaded several items (G67-G73) to an online auction.

Browse to www.32auctions.com/bruu, create an account, and start bidding!

Silent Auction Tips

- You will be assigned an auction number. This will also be your number for the door prize drawings (you must be present to win). Read about each item on its bid sheet and in this booklet.
- Write your auction number and bid amount on the bid sheet for items you choose. Verify all slots are full before moving to the next $ amount.
- Check your bid often; if the slots are full you can bid again by writing a higher number in the “price” column and your auction number in the adjacent slot. Make sure you are high bidder in each slot you want to win.
- The silent auction items are color coded to end either at 7:45 (red) or 9:00 (blue). Look for the signs and listen for the announcements.

Live Auction

(also known as “not so silent auction”)

- To bid on an item, hold up your auction number and call out the desired number of slots and your bid amount.
- A demonstration in the first round of live auctions will help you see how to keep track of how many slots you have.
- There will be several different sessions of bidding, so pace yourself!

Payment Policy

Please pay at night of auction...bring your checkbook,
Visa, or Mastercard.

All items MUST be paid for by December 15, 2014.

Auction Proxy Bidding Form

For your convenience, if you absolutely can't make the auction on November 16th, consider having someone bid for you on items and at a budget level you specify. If you can't find someone to bid for you, fill out this form and make sure someone on the Auction Committee receives your form. No guarantees on getting what you want, but you can still be a part of the auction even if you are out of town or unavailable. Check with your proxy and Henry Hastings on your return for an accurate accounting.
