

7th UU Principle:

Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part

Stewardship & You

BRUU recognizes your inherent worth regardless of your financial situation or your ability to pledge.

The Seventh Principle reminds us that we live within an interdependent web, where our financial choices help shape the well-being of the whole.

Mindfulness invites us to notice how our resources flow and to give with intention, aligning our money with our values rather than habit or comparison. In this light, tithing becomes a spiritual practice: sustaining the community that sustains us.
